TWO operatives of the Federal Road Safety Corps have been killed with one sustaining severe injuries in Anambra State following an attack on a team of patrol operatives of the corps.

The patrol team comprised an officer, a driver and two other staff on patrol operations, Corps Public Education Officer, Mr Bisi Kazeem said in a statement on Sunday in Abuja.

According to him, the patrol team were conducting routine patrol operations on Sunday, April 3, 2022 at about 2:45 p.m along the Igbo-Uku- Uga route in Anambra State when the armed men opened fire at them killing two of the Corps personnel with one escaping into the bush and the team leader rushed to the hospital after sustaining severe injuries from the attack.
