A 23-year-old housewife, Sadiya Idris, and her four-year-old daughter were on Tuesday morning found murdered in their apartment at Bye-pass area of Birnin-Kebbi metropolis, with their bodies mutilated.

Nigerian Tribune gathered that the mutilated bodies were discovered by the husband on Tuesday morning.

It was learnt that the husband, a tailor, had been busy in his tailoring shop since the beginning of the Ramadan fast, a situation that had kept him out of his house every night.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Nāfiu Abubakar, who confirmed the incident, said a team of special investigation officers had been mobilised and were already on the trail of the assailants.

Meanwhile, the state governor, Abubakar Atiku Bagudu, has condoled with the family of the victims, just as he prayed that the Almighty Allah would grant their souls eternal rest.
