

One killed as hoodlums clash in Osun

Adeolu Adeyemo | Osogbo

ONE person has reportedly been killed in Ede, Osun State following a clash that ensued between hoodlums living in the area on Wednesday evening.

Trouble had been brewing between the two groups in the past few weeks, after thugs invaded the abode of some residents, demanding for 'kola.'

It was gathered that the residents refused to settle the thugs on the argument that, a group had once been collecting such money from them and wondered why another set of people, and this led to a clash.

Reacting to the development, the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Mrs Yemisi Opalola, confirmed the death, just as she said normalcy had been restored to the area.

Opalola said the police would not tolerate untoward acts in the society.

Police rescue five underage girls allegedly used as sex slaves in Delta

From Ebenezer Adurokiya

state.

This is just as the com

the other 20 suspects were rounded up on Friday April

DSP Bright Edafe, during the parade of the suspects