AKWA Ibom State police command has confirmed the fresh killings in Inen community of Oruk Anam Local Government Area of the state.

According to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN), the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), SP Odiko Macdon, on Wednesday, confirmed the killings, just as he explained that there were conflicting reports regarding the number of victims.

It was gathered that the victims were killed in their different houses when some suspected hoodlums arrived at the community in a motorcycle convoy and robbed them of some of their belongings.

The police spokesperson said: "There is a conflicting report concerning the number of victims involved. But as a command, we have commenced investigation to avert more killings.

"We are out to establish the cause of the development. We are determined to ensure that the culprits are brought to book," Macdon said.

Meanwhile, the chairman of Oruk Anam Local Government Area, Mr Kingsley Frank, said he had mobilised all the joint security team to restore peace in the area.
