

Ibadan Polytechnic Confirms Its Student Died During Marathon Sex

•Partner in coma, on admission at UCH

By Soji Ajibola On May 17, 2022

LATEST NEWS

Ibadan Poly gate

The Public Affairs Director of the Polytechnic Ibadan, Alhaji Soladoye Adewole has confirmed the death of a Higher National Diploma (HND) student of the institution, identified as Daniel Igunnu who reportedly lost his life during marathon sex with his lover in Ibadan.

Adewole confirmed that the incident happened off-campus, precisely, Idi-Ito area.

He said the institution is yet to establish the identity of the lady involved.

The two lovebirds, as reliably gathered engaged in marathon sex at the deceased apartment in Idi-Ito in the Ido local government area of Oyo State.

Our correspondent gathered that the door of the apartment was forced open by the fellow students after waiting for several hours for them to come out.

The lifeless bodies of the deceased were seen on the floor while the lady whose identity could not be ascertained at the time of filing this report was met unconscious.

The lady, as reliably informed was rushed to the University College Hospital (UCH), Ibadan for medical attention.

Some of the students who preferred anonymity attributed the incident to the use of sex enhancement drugs.

However, efforts to reach the Police Public Relations Officer, CP Adewale Osifeso to confirm the incident proved abortive.