KANO State Fire Service has confirmed the death of a four-year-old girl, Amina Garba, who drowned inside a well at Kofar Waika, in Ungoggo Local Government Area of the state.

This was contained in a statement signed by the Public Relations Officer (PRO) of the agency, Saminu Abdullahi.

Abdullahi said the Kofar Nasarawa Fire Service received a distress call at 2:05 p.m. from Alkasim

Ibrahim.

He said on arrival at the scene, the rescue team discovered that a four-year-old girl had accidentally fallen into a well.

Abdullahi disclosed that the team immediately swung into action and succeeded in retrieving the body of the girl, which was later confirmed dead by health officials.

He added that the remains of Amina were then handed over to the ward head of Kofar Waika, Alhaji Isma'ila Yusuf.
