POLICE from the Ondo State command have arrested a 20-year-old lady, Biodun (surname withheld) over the stabbing to death of a 17-year-old boy, Mohammed Jamiu, during a minor misunderstanding between them.

The lady, mother of a one-year old boy, was said to have committed the offence on May 28, at Ebute, Okitipupa, headquarters of Okitipupa Local Government Area of the state.

Confessing to the crime,

Biodun explained that she was attacked by Jamiu and three others while she was coming from the river where she went to fetch water.

She said Jamiu and his friends descended on her before she went home to pick a knife used in stabbing him on the neck.

She claimed Jamiu was not happy that she stopped her friend from dating him.

She said: "On Saturday, I went to the river to fetch water. At the riverside, I saw four boys and three girls fighting.

"The girls are Hausa, and I spoke to them in the Hausa Language that they should leave those boys. After the girls left, the boys came to meet me that they have been monitoring me all this while.

"One of them (Jamiu) approached me and hit me with a stick. After beating me with the stick, I rushed home to pick a knife and I returned to the riverbank, but on getting there, they went into hiding.

"It was when I was trying to take my bucket of water that they came back again. They started beating me again and it was at that point that I stabbed him."
