② AN accident that occurred in the early hours of Tuesday around Otovwodo Market, Ughelli, in Ughelli North Local Government Area of Delta State has claimed two lives.

The accident involved a bus and a stationary vehicle offloading some goods.

A witness said the bus belonged to a private school located at Ekrejebor community in Ughelli.

The source said the bus was conveying children to school when it developed a brake failure, leading to the crash.

He explained that the driver, in an attempt to maneuver the bus, rammed the parked vehicle discharging goods brought from the North, and two young men died instantly.

It was also disclosed that one of the pupils in the school bus sustained injuries and was rushed to a hospital for treatment.

The bodies of the young men were later taken to a morgue.

The incident caused gridlock on the Ughelli-Patani expressway and on Otovwodo road.
