

5 Man allegedly murders pregnant wife, stabs self in Badagry

THE police command in Lagos on Thursday confirmed a report of killing of a woman with four months pregnancy by her 25-year-old husband, Wasiu (surname withheld).

The murder occurred at Araromi-Ale community in Oko-Afo, Badagry in Olorunda Local Council Development Area (LCDA) of Lagos.

Spokesman for the command, SP Benjamin Hundeyin, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Lagos that the case would be transferred to the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID), Pantti, Yaba, for more investigation.

"The man is still on admission at a hospital in Badagry; he will be taken to SCID, Pantti, Yaba, when he is stable.

"He will be charged to court," he said.

A reliable source had told NAN that Wasiu and his wife, Fathia, were always at loggerheads and their latest quarrel led to stabbing of the 21-year-old woman by the man, resulting in her death.
