

Gunmen kill Adamawa legislator

Austin Ajayi | Yola

A GUNMEN in the early hours of Saturday have reportedly killed the deputy legislative leader of Song local government council, in Adamawa State.

The legislator, Ishaya Bakan, who represented Gudu Mboi ward was shot dead by the gunmen shortly after they whisked him away from his residence at Bannga in Song Local Government Area.

A source in the area said the gunmen also shot the son of the deceased, and that he is currently receiving treatment at Song hospital.

The Police Public Relations Officer, SP Suleiman Yahaya Nguroje, confirmed the incident. He said the command has received the report.

He added that the incident happened in the early hours of Saturday and that the security operatives are doing everything possible to arrest the suspects.