

at the police headquarters, Ikeja, on Monday.

3 Another seven killed in Plateau community

Isaac Shobayo | Jos

SEVEN persons have been killed and many injured after terrorists attacked a community in Jos South Local Government Area of Plateau State.

Nigerian Tribune learnt that the bandits, in their large numbers, stormed Danda Chugwi community at about 9:45 p.m on Sunday, when residents had retired to their respective homes.

It was gathered that the bandits shot sporadically and in the process, killed seven persons and injured several others, while many escaped into a nearby bush.

The national publicity secretary of Berom Youth Molders Association, Rwang Tengwong, who confirmed the incident to newsmen in Jos on Monday, said the attack has created tension in the community, as many had fled from their homes and now taking refuge in neighbouring communities.

Tengwong said: "Seven persons have been confirmed dead at Danda Chugwi community following an attack by bandits. It happened on Sunday at about 10:00pm. Others who sustained serious gun injuries have been taken to Vom Christian Hospital for medical attention."

When the Nigerian Tribune contacted the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Alfred Alabo, to confirm the incident, his mobile phone did not connect.

Also, security agencies in the state, including the police and the Military Special Task force, were yet to issue any statement on the attack.

Gunmen abduct nursing mother. four-month-old baby two others in