

③ Terrorists ambush, injure Police AIG, Madaki, in Kaduna, kill orderly

Ishola Michael | Bauchi

GUNMEN suspected to be terrorists operating inside
Lame/Burra forest in Bauchi State on Tuesday attacked the convoy of the Assistant Inspector General of Police (AIG) in charge of Zone 12, Bauchi, Audu Madaki, injuring him and killing one of his orderlies.

It was learnt that the convoy of the police boss, which was on its way to Abuja on an official engagement, was attacked by the terrorists at Barde-Jagindi area in Kaduna State at about 2:30p.m.

A source at the Zone 12 headquarters of the Nigeria Police Force in Bauchi told the Nigerian Tribune that AIG Madaki was shot at and injured during the attack, while his orderly was killed.

The AIG is said to be receiving treatment at an undisclosed hospital in Abuja, while security has been beefed up around the zone.

Another source revealed that police operatives had been drafted to the area where the incident occurred to comb the bush in order to fish out the terrorists.

Efforts to get an official confirmation of the incident from the Zonal Police Public Relations Officer (ZPPRO), Thomas Goni, failed as he did not answer calls made to his mobile phone or respond to the short messages sent to him.
