

Gunmen Kill Indian, Driver, Policeman, Naval Officer In Kogi

By Yekini Jimoh - Lokoja On Aug 6, 2022

LATEST NEWS

Some gunmen on Friday night invaded West African Ceramic Company killing an Indian man, a policeman, a naval officer, and a driver and kidnapped some Indian workers.

Tribune Online reliably gathered that the gunmen invaded the company located in Ajaokuta Local Government Area of Kogi State at about 7 pm on Friday and killed the four occupants that were in the coaster bus which was about to convey them to the various places.

According to an eye-witness account, the gunmen came with two vehicles and started shooting sporadically after killing the four occupants of the Coaster bus.

The sources said the fully armed gunmen then moved into the premises of the company and kidnapped some other Indian workers and went away to an unknown location.

However, the police were yet to react to the incident at the time of filling the report.

YOU SHOULD NOT MISS THESE HEADLINES FROM NIGERIAN TRIBUNE

6 Handworks That Do Not Lose Relevance In Nigeria You Should Learn

Handwork is a skill that requires you to use your hands to render services or products to people. It involves the use of your hands and knowledge to solve problems creatively. However, it takes months of learning as an apprentice to get enough knowledge to stand on your own. In Nigeria, the duration of learning varies depending on your interests. Certain handiworks have survived and have been relevant despite the emergence of technology and modernity...

Top 10 Business Ideas In Nigeria You Can Start With 100,000 Naira

In a country where economic deficit and unemployment have become the order of the day, conceptualizing a business idea in Nigeria and subsequently starting it can be likened to a goldmine which offers an opportunity for people to tap into a better livelihood...

We Never Had It This Bad In Nigeria, Says Sanusi

Former governor of the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN) and 14th Emir of Kano, Sanusi Lamido Sanusi, on Thursday, in Lagos, expressed great concerns about the current state of the country, saying Nigeria and its people had never had it as bad as it is currently in history...