

35-Year-Old Man Allegedly Stabs Lottery Operator To Death In Lagos

By Olalekan Olabulo On Aug 9, 2022

LATEST NEWS

A 35-year-old man, Kamaldeen Raji has stabbed a lottery operator to death during an argument over debt in the Badagry area of Lagos State

Tribune Online gathered that the deceased man, who was a manager at a lottery agency and the suspects were arguing over debt when the former was allegedly stabbed and died.

The spokesperson of the Lagos State police command, Benjamin Hundeyin confirmed the incident on Tuesday in a statement made available to the Tribune Online.

“Officers of Area K, Morogbo of the Lagos State Police Command have arrested one Kamalideen Raji ‘m’ aged 35 over the alleged murder of one person in the Badagry area of the state.

“The suspect, who was arrested at about 1130hrs on Tuesday, August 2, 2022, stabbed his victim, a manager of a lottery centre, twice in the neck over a disagreement about unpaid debts.

“The victim was rushed to Badagry General Hospital for medical attention but later gave up the ghost.

He also added that “The Lagos State Commissioner of Police, CP Abiodun Alabi, FDC has directed that the case be transferred to the State Criminal Investigations Department, Panty for further investigations and prosecution.”

YOU SHOULD NOT MISS THESE HEADLINES FROM NIGERIAN TRIBUNE

‘39.6 percent of unmarried university students use sexual performance-enhancing drugs’

EXPERTS say that the use of sexual performance-enhancing drugs is an emerging public health issue that requires a university-wide health advocacy campaign to stop among unmarried students in Nigerian universities...

Tips on building a happy and healthy relationship

Building a happy relationship entails setting certain relationship goals. These goals revitalise your relationship and also help you spice things up. You might be surprised that these little efforts can go a long way in helping you build a better and outstanding relationship...

35-year-old man allegedly stabs lottery operator to death in Lagos

Safety precautions to observe at the airport

35-year-old man allegedly stabs lottery operator to death in Lagos