

① Two KWASU students found dead, naked inside hostel

Biola Azeez | Ilorin

KWARA State police command has commenced investigation into the death of two undergraduates of the Kwara State University (KWASU), Malete, who were found dead in their hostel.

Nigerian Tribune gathered that the two students, Tobiloba Daniel and his suspected lover, Arewa Abayomi, were found naked and lifeless in their hostel located outside the university campus.

It was also gathered that the deceased were both 200-Level students of the university and were writing the ongoing examinations when the incident happened.

A student who spoke with the Nigerian Tribune on the condition of anonymity said the death was mysterious, adding that, "We became concerned when they were not seen during the ongoing examination in the university and also in their class for three days.

"It was when some of their friends got to their hostel outside the school that they found them both dead and naked," the student said.

The Director, University Relations of the institution, Hajia Saeedat Aliyu, said there was no official communication on the matter.

However, the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), SP Ajayi Okasanmi, confirmed the incident.

The police spokesperson said: "The information was that the two of them were found dead inside their room and the police were alerted."

"Our officers pulled down the door and they were taken to the University of Ilorin Teaching Hospital (UIH) for autopsy."

"Investigation into the matter is ongoing."
