A truck on Wednesday morning fell on a tricycle after it fell off the Iju Bridge, on Idiroko road, Ota, Ogun State, killing three persons, and leaving many others trapped.

As of the time of filing in this report, men of the Ogun State Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Corps (TRACE) had already cordoned off the area and were battling with traffic control, while a crane and a flat bed truck had just arrived to evacuate the accidented truck.

An official of TRACE who spoke with the Nigerian Tribune on condition of anonymity said: "The TRACE management is on top of the accident involving a truck falling on a tricycle, killing three persons and trapping unspecified number of victims early Wednesday morning.

"We've already gone to hire a crane and a flat bed, which have just arrived, at 12.54pm, for evacuation of the accidented truck and tricycle.

"The three dead victims have been placed on the side of the road for identification by their relations.

"Meanwhile, TRACE operatives, working in consonance with other security agencies, are on ground controlling the already-chaotic traffic."
