YABATECH student shot dead on campus, another injured

Olalekan Olabulo | Lagos

GUNMEN, suspected to be cultists have killed a student at the Yaba College of Technology (YABATECH) and injured another one on Thursday night in the Yaba area of Lagos State

The police in state confirmed the incident and added that investigations has commenced to unravel and arrest the killers of the student.

Saturday Tribune gathered that the slain student, Akinresola Bello, and a female student were around 10 O' clock on Thursday night shot dead.

Bello reportedly died on the spot while the female student sustained gunshot and was rushed to the hospital.

The deceased student was identified as an Ordinary National Diploma student of the Fine and Applied Arts Department of the school

The two students were on their way to read for the night in readiness for their examination the next day when they were attacked.

The Police Public Relations Officer in the state, Benjamin Hundeyin, confirmed the incident to the Saturday Tribune and added that "investigations are ongoing."