

Two PoS robbers set ablaze in Enugu

Igbonaka Chukwu | Enugu

LUCK ran out on two young men on Wednesday as they attempted to rob a Point of Sale (PoS) operator in Enugu metropolis.

The men were nabbed and immediately set ablaze

by a mob.

The incident occurred on the popular Bisalla (Independence) Road at Independence Layout area of the capital.

The PoS operator reportedly raised the alarm after the robbers pulled out their guns and demanded money.

The alarm attracted some people nearby who chased the suspects and apprehended them.

A viral video doing the rounds on social media showed both robbers being burnt, while a small crowd gathered to witness the incident.

Spokesperson for the state police command, Dan Ndukwe, could not be reached to confirm the incident as of the time of filing in this report.
