

③ Suspected herdsmen kill two in Delta community

Ebenezer Adurokiya | State.
Warri

SUSPECTED herdsmen on Monday killed two persons in Toru-Angiama community in Patani Local Government Area of Delta

The victims were killed in their farms in what was described as unprovoked attacks.

Sources said the bodies of the victims, which had machete wounds, were found in their farms.

Nigerian Tribune gathered that some herders in the community had been intimidating residents in recent times.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Bright Edefe, when contacted, confirmed the incident.

He, however, said no suspect had been arrested in connection with the killings.

Police arrested 500 suspects for drug trafficking in Borno