

Also confirming Agatu attack, chairman of the council, Joseph Ngbede who spoke to newsmen on the phone on Sunday said, "there was an attack at Oshigbudu community on Friday and we recorded one casualty.

"The attack was carried out by armed Fulani herdsmen who also blocked the roads, robbing people of their motorcycles.

When contacted, the Police Public Relations Officer for the State Command, Catherine Anene said the command was yet to receive such a report.