

Bauchi Chief Accountant, sons die in autocrash

Ishola Michael | Bauchi

YAKUBU Shehu Sakwaa, a staff at the Bauchi State Treasury Board attached to the office of the Head of Civil Service, Bauchi (HOCS) and two of his children, have been killed in a fatal accident.

The crash was said to have occurred on Saturday, along Azare/Sakwaa road in Zaki Local Government Area of Bauchi State.

A source in Azare told Nigerian Tribune that the late Yakubu Sakwa died along with his two children on the spot following the crash which occurred in the afternoon.

The source said that Yakubu Sakwaa was going to his village, Sakwaa for a family engagement with his children when his car veered off the road following a tyre bust and rammed into a big tree beside the road.

The corpses have been buried on Saturday according to Islamic rites.

Among those in attendance were the representative of the Head of Civil Service of Bauchi State, two permanent secretaries and three directors from the office.

The crash has not been confirmed by the State Sector Command of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC) at the time of filing this report.
