

Belt Forum cries out in fresh attack in Plateau

In a related development, gunmen struck again in the early hours of Saturday in Rawuru community of Barak-in-Ladi Local Government Area of Plateau State, killing eight persons while several houses were burnt.

Sunday Tribune findings revealed that the attackers, who were said to be on motorcycles, invaded the community at about 12:45 a.m. and went on a shooting spree which lasted for more than 30 minutes and eventually succeeded in killing eight persons whose bodies were recovered on Saturday morning.

A youth leader, Solomon Dalyop, who confirmed the incident to Sunday Tribune, said an early warning signal prior to the attack stated that the militias were on their way to attack the community and others in the local government.

Attempts to speak with the spokesman of the Plateau State Police Command, DSP Alfred Alabo, proved abortive as he could not be reached on his phone.
