

Motorist hits man on expressway ② in Delta, body dismembered

Alphonsus Agborh | Asaba

IT was a gory sight to behold when an unidentified man was dismembered following an auto accident near Federal College on Ibusa Road, Asaba, Delta State, on Friday.

The victim's dismembered body was seen on both sides of the expressway after he was hit by a driver suspected to be an internet fraudster.

Sunday Tribune gathered that a Toyota Corolla had earlier hit a pole and caught fire, which attracted onlookers and that it was in the process of the victim crossing the road that the suspected internet fraudster ran into him.

The motorist was said to have driven off immediately after the incident occurred.

The Delta State Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRS), Udeme Bassey Eshiet, confirmed the incident, even as he appealed to motorists to exercise caution on the road.
