Kidnappers and bandits have carried out attacks in parts of Plateau State, resulting in the deaths of five people in Jos East and Barakin-Ladi local government areas.

According to a source, Agada Sambo of Zangam village in Maigemu District of Jos East, who went to pay ransom for the release of Luka Izang, was held back by the kidnappers after delivering the ransom, while Luka was set free.

Another person named Azi from Kayarda, also in Maigemu District, was also held captive and killed along with Agada. Both Azi and Agada were buried in Zangam on Sunday, as agreed by their relatives.
