

Thunder strike kills 'Mai-tea', one other in Kwara

Biola Azeez | Ilorin

Kwara state.

THUNDER strike has reportedly killed a tea seller on commercial scale and one other person at Onigbegiri Junction, Eyenkorin in Asa local government area of Saturday Tribune gathered that the incident, which happened on Thursday during a heavy downpour, had caused apprehension among residents of the area.

An eyewitness, Mr. Mojeed

Onigbegiri, told journalists that the tea seller and another unidentified male person, yet to be identified, died instantly when the thunder struck them during a heavy rainfall at about 6:30pm.

It was also gathered that the yet to be identified victim was a customer.

The people of the community had, however, appealed to the state government, Nigeria Police Force and other security agencies to evacuate their bodies.