As at the time of filling this report, people have fled the village for safety even though normalcy had returned to the troubled community.

“As I am talking to you, we are having a meeting with the Sector Commander of Operation Safe Haven on the recent onslaught. He assured us that they’re on top of it.

It was also gathered that the injured people were taken to the hospital for medical treatment.

However, the Acting Secretary to the District Head in the community, Samson Markus who confirmed the incident disclosed that the arrival of the military was what made the bandits flee.

Thus, as at the time of filling the report, there was no official reaction from the state government or the Police over the attack.
