POLICE operatives in Edo State have arrested a 21-year-old man, Onon-omeh (surname withheld), over the killing of a trader, Mr Oromidayo Awolowo, in Igarra, Akoko-Edo Local Government Area of the state.

The police said the trader demanded for money for the knife he sold to the sus-pect, who immediately en-gaged him (deceased) in a fight which led to the death.

Spokesperson for the state police command, Chidi Nwabuzor, said the suspect was arrested by op-eratives of the Igarra police division following a com-plaint from the brother of the deceased.
