

Army kill one bandit, rescue six kidnap victims in Kaduna

by Muhammad Sabiu October 14, 2023 in Metro Reading Time: 2 mins read

AA

The One Division of the Nigerian Army in Kaduna conducted a successful operation in Hayin Tsando, the general area of Maraban Jos, Igabi local government area, Kaduna State.

Acting on credible intelligence, the troops launched a search and rescue operation.

They engaged with bandits, resulting in a firefight where they rescued six kidnapped victims, captured two AK-47 rifles, and neutralized one bandit, while others escaped with gunshot wounds.

---

Related Posts

Akwa Ibom govt, Army partner to fight crime in Niger Delta

Visually impaired lament high cost of white cane

Nigerian Army undergoing transformation — COAS

---

The General Officer Commanding 1 Division Nigerian Army praised the troops for their dedication and urged them to maintain their efforts to eliminate criminal elements in the region.

The public has been urged to report individuals with gunshot wounds to security services.