TROOPS of Operation Hadarin Daji (OPHD) in the North-West have, during a clearance operation, destroyed notorious bandits' kingpin, Dogo Gide's hideout in Zamfara State.

During the operation, the troops also killed three suspected bandits and recovered military uniforms.

A source disclosed that Dogo Gide narrowly escaped death, but sustained gunshot injuries alongside his foot soldiers.

"The troops stormed the terrorists' enclaves at Dansadau, Mai Tukunya and Babban Doka villages, which had been the hideouts for Dogo Gide in Zamfara State.

A source said: "Inside the bandits' kingpin's hideout was a tailoring factory for sewing various military and other security agencies uniforms.

"Improvised Explosive Devices (IEDs), a mini pharmacy suspected to be used for treatment of wounded terrorists, five operational motorcycles and sewing machines, among other items found there were set ablaze immediately."
