

'Chinetugo 1 of Ibagwa-Nike munities.

Man to die by hanging for killing friend over N100 in Zamfara

Attahiru Ahmed | Gusau

A High Court sitting in Zamfara State has sentenced one Anas Dahiru to death by hanging for killing his friend over N100.

Also, another person was sentenced to life imprisonment for attempted armed robbery in the state.

The trial judge, Justice Muktar Yusha'u, while reading the judgment, said Dahiru of Unguwar Dallatu area of Gusau was accused of killing his friend, Shamsu Ibrahim, with a knife over N100 in 2017.

Having listened to both sides, Justice Yusha'u then sentenced the accused person to death by hanging as enshrined in Section 221 of the panel code.

In a related development, Justice Yusha'u also convicted one Sadiqu Abubakar for attempted armed robbery in Bungudu Local Government Area of the state.

Abubakar was convicted for attacking a businessman in Runji village.

During the attack, the businessman was able to overpower the accused and handed him over to the police.