Gunmen ambush Daewoo convoy, abduct two Koreans, kill four soldiers, two drivers

Ebiowei Lawal | Yenagoa

GUNMEN on Tuesday morning ambushed a Yenagoa-bound convoy of Daewoo Construction workers on the Ahoada/Abua section of the East-West road in Rivers State, killing four soldiers and two drivers attached to the company.

According to eyewitness account, the gunmen also kidnapped two expatriates believed to be Koreans who were part of the convoy.

It was gathered that the incident, which occurred at about 9:30a.m., caused pandemonium on the East-West road.

A security source who confirmed the development said: "The suspected kidnappers ambushed a team of expatriates being escorted by troops on the Ahoada/Obua section of the East-West road.

"During the attack, the assailants opened fire on the convoy, killing four soldiers and two civilian drivers and subsequently abducted two Koreans in the process.

"Details are still sketchy but efforts are ongoing to get more details from the units. Further details will be forwarded as soon as possible."
