

Three killed in attempt to escape kidnappers' den in Kogi

by Yekini Jimoh January 5, 2024 in NEWSNOW Reading Time: 3 mins read

AA

The Senator Representing Kogi West Senatorial District, Sen Sunday Karimi, disclosed that three persons have been killed while attempting to escape from the kidnappers' den in Kogi State.

He made this known in a statement issued on Thursday and made available to Tribune Online in Lokoja.

The lawmaker lamented the insecurity in Isanlu, stressing that, within 48 hours, six persons had been kidnapped.

Related Posts

Yahaya Bello appoints caretaker chairmen for LGs in Kogi

Yahaya Bello dissolves state executive council

I'm leaving Kogi in better state — Gov Yahaya Bello

The statement which was titled: 'Address the security situation in Isanlu and neighbouring communities', said more than six different people have been kidnapped in the last 48 hours.

"Three people also lost their lives in Idofin and Isanlu in an attempt to escape from the Kidnappers den."

Senator Karimi, however, commended the state governor's efforts in making lives and properties safe in the state.

He called on the Kogi State Commissioner of Police and the Director, Department of State Services (DSS) to address insecurity situation in Isanlu, Yagba East Local Government Area of the State.

He further called on the Police Commissioner and the DSS boss to rise to the occasion, by doing the needful in curbing the spate of kidnapping in Isanlu, Yagba East Local Government Area of Kogi State.

