TROOPS of the 6 Brigade, Nigerian Army deployed in Karim-Lamido Local Government Area of Taraba State on Thursday stormed a bandits' camp, killed three hoodlums and recovered weapons and ammunition.

The brigade commander, Brigadier-General Kingsley Uwa, disclosed this while explaining the victory against the criminals in the state.

Uwa said the operation took place at Chibi village, where the 6 Brigade troops, acting on actionable intelligence, conducted a precision strike against the criminals.

The brigade commander commended the troops for their bravery and efficiency in executing the operation, just as he described the engagement as a demonstration of the troops' commitment to maintaining peace and security in the state.

Uwa disclosed that two AK-47 rifles, a motorcycle and a cache of 40 rounds of 7.62 MM special ammunition were recovered from the bandits.
