

Bandits kill two, abduct 16 in fresh attack in Kaduna

Muhammad Sabiu, Kaduna

Bandits have stormed the Gidan Busa village in Doka ward of Kachia Local Government Area of Kaduna State, killing two villagers, while 16 persons were abducted on Friday night.

A resident, Musa Ibrahim, said five people sustained injuries and were receiving treatment in a medical facility as of press time.

This was coming when a kingpin bandit, Boderi Isyaku, who masterminded high profile kidnapping cases, was shot dead during a gun duel with the military some days ago.

However, on Friday night, bandits again struck Gidan Busa, shooting indiscriminately, killing two and kidnapping 16 residents of the area.

The resident of the area said the incident occurred around 11:30 p.m. when the villagers were asleep.

According to him, no fewer than eight people were abducted in the residence of one Alhaji Hassan, where two people were killed.

"A boy and a lady were killed while five others sustained gunshot wounds when the hoodlums invaded the residence.

"Yesterday night (Friday) bandits came to Gidan Busa and abducted 16 residents of the area, killing two while five sustained gunshot injuries and are currently receiving treatment in the hospital.
