AGAIN, five persons were killed on Thursday around Fidiwo bridge, on the Lagos-Ibadan expressway following wrongful overtaking and excessive speed.

The Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Public Education Officer for the Ogun State command, Florence Okpe, in a statement, said the accident occurred at about 2:48p.m.

She said the crash involved nine persons, including six females and three male adults.

According to her, three females and two males lost their lives in the crash which involved two vehicles, a Prime bus and a Toyota Camry.

She said those injured were taken to a private hospital for treatment, while the bodies of the deceased were deposited at a morgue in Ipara-Remo.

The FRSC sector commander, Anthony Uga, charged motorists to observe the speed limit on the highway.

An accident on Wednesday had previously claimed five lives on the expressway.
