

Police refutes killing of 1, abduction of 3 in Abuja

Lawrence Bajah | Abuja
THE Federal Capital Territory (FCT) Police, has refuted the story doing rounds that gunmen in the early hours of Wednesday raided houses in Faba village of Bwari Area Council of the Federal Capital Territory (FCT), killed one person and abducted three others.

A resident, who spoke to newsmen under condition of anonymity, said the corpse of the victim had been moved to his village for burial.

The community has been gripped with fear, residents were seen discussing the incident in groups.

It was gathered that the village, which is not far from Tokulo, the home town of the council's Chairman, John Gabaya, is surrounded by some villages, including Zuma, which were previously attacked by kidnappers. However, the FCT Police

Public Relations Officer, SP Josephine Adeh: refuting the incident, told Saturday Tribune, that; "This isn't true pls, Except Kaduna not FCT."
