EIYE and Aiye confraternity members clashed in different parts of Abeokuta, the Ogun State capital, leading to the death of two persons.

The clashes came barely three weeks after a member of Aiye confraternity, identified as Olumide Ifeoluwa, was shot dead by suspected members of Eiye group.

It was gathered that Sunday's clash was a reprisal for the killing of Ifeoluwa.

The first victim, said to be a member of Eiye, was killed at Alogi in Obantoko area, while the second victim, identified as Timo, reported to be a member of Aiye, was shot dead at Bode-Olude, both in Odeda Local Government Area of the state.

It was further gathered that after Timo was shot, his head was also smashed with a stone.

The state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Omolola Odutola, when contacted, said she was yet to be briefed on the clash.
