

30-year-old man drowns while praying at Lagos beach

by Rachael Omidiji May 22, 2024 in Metro Reading Time: 1 min read

AA

A 30-year-old man, identified as Samuel, drowned at the Elegushi beach in Lagos after going for a prayer session.

This was disclosed by the Lagos police command SP Benjamin Hundeyin, on Wednesday.

Related Posts

Hardships: Stop cursing your leaders, pray instead — Clerics charge Nigerians

Pray for peaceful coexistence, Bauchi Gov urges traditional rulers

Nigerians should pray for God's will in 2023 elections —Ologbonyo

The police reported that divers were working to recover the body of a 30-year-old man who allegedly drowned at Elegushi Beach in Lagos during a prayer session.

SP Benjamin Hundeyin, the spokesman for the Lagos police command, disclosed that the man, identified as Samuel, had gone to the beach with friends to pray.

The incident was reported to the Ilasan Police Division at about 7:20 a.m. on Tuesday by an unnamed individual.

ALSO READ: Ondo: How court witness slums, dies in court

According to the report, Samuel and three friends had left Igbesan in Ogun at midnight to pray at Elegushi Beach in Lekki. During the prayer session, around 4:00 a.m., Samuel allegedly drowned.

Detectives from the division promptly visited the scene, and efforts are ongoing to recover the body. The family of the deceased has been contacted, and the investigation continues.

