

21-year-old undergraduate contracted to act as girlfriend killed by ritualists in Kwara

Biola Azeez | Ilorin

KWARA State police command has commenced investigations into the killing of one Miss Mojisola Awesu, a 21-year-old student of Kwara State College of Health Technology, Offa by suspected ritualists. Nigerian Tribune gathered that the corpse of Awesu, who had been declared missing since August 9, was found at Aleniboro area of Ilorin by one Mr Olorunoje on August 12, at about 7:30a.m. It was gathered that the deceased had received a phone call from one Miss Timileyin on August 9, about an event organised by students of Summit University, Offa and Al-Hikmah University, Ilorin.

Also, it was gathered that Miss Timileyin had introduced the late Awesu to one Mr Happiness, a student of a private university in the state, who allegedly invited her to the night party under the pretence of having her act as his girlfriend for a fee of N15,000.

Nigerian Tribune also gathered that the late Awesu had informed her roommate, one Miss Blessing O, that she felt uncomfortable in the hotel

she was lodged by Happiness and noted that there was no party at the said location and shortly after this communication, her phone was switched off and all subsequent efforts by Miss Blessing to reach her were unsuccessful.

In a statement, the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Toun Ejire-Adeyemi, said some suspects had already been arrested in connection with the murder.

She added that the case had been transferred to the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID) for further discreet investigation.

Proportion used for