THE Catholic Laity Council of Nigeria (CLCN) has been thrown into mourning following a devastating auto crash that claimed the lives of four prominent members of Jos Province.

The incident occurred when members of the council were returning from the Jos Provincial Annual General Meeting (AGM) held in Jalingo Diocese.

According to a statement signed by Mr Donaldson Emberga, on behalf of the CLCN National President, several others also sustained injuries. He lamented over the incident and extended his condolences to the families of the deceased.
