

Lady found dead on roadside after visiting man she met on dating site

Ebenezer Adurokiya | Warri

THE Delta State Police Command has begun investigation into circumstances surrounding the death of Miss Precious Yusuf, a 23-year-old lady whose corpse was found along DLA Road, opposite Falcon Club in Asaba, the state capital.

The Public Relations Officer (PPRO) of the state police command, SP Bright Edafe, in a statement on Saturday, said on October 24, the Divisional Police Officer of 'A' Division, Asaba, CSP Rex Abiodun, responded to a distress call regarding the presence of a corpse.

Leading a team to the location, the DPO confirmed the discovery of Precious Yusuf's body.

~~Edafe said preliminary investigations revealed that Precious had informed a friend on October 22 that she planned to meet a male friend she had connected with on a dating website.~~

She then left her home to meet the yet-to-be-identified man in the Coka area, but the following day, at around 7:30 a.m., she called her friend to inform her that she was on her way home.

However, this was her last known contact before her body was discovered the following day.

Edafe said policemen had taken the corpse to the mortuary, where an autopsy will be conducted to determine the cause of death.