THE Defence Headquarters (DHQ), on Sunday, confirmed that 22 soldiers were killed during clearance operations in the terrorist stronghold and enclave known as Timbuktu Triangle in the North-East.

The military high command further added that troops also killed three terrorist commanders and over 70 combatants during the operation.

These were contained in a statement made available to newsmen in Abuja by the Director, Defence Media Operations (DMO), Major-General Edward Buba.

The statement said the operations, which commenced on January 16, were aimed at dismantling terrorists' presence around Timbuktu Triangle.

"During the operations, the terrorists deployed Improvised Explosive Devices (IEDs), Person-Borne Improvised Explosive Devices (suicide bombers), as well as Vehicle-Borne Improvised Explosive Devices (suicide bombers in explosive vehicles) to ward off troops' advance and attacks.

"Troops already familiar with the terrorists' tactics thwarted the several attempts, including shooting down the amateur drones used by the terrorists.
