

Man allegedly stabs another to death in Lagos

OPERATIVES of the Lagos State police command have detained a man for allegedly stabbing a 25-year-old man to death.

According to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN), the state Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), CSP Benjamin Hundeyin, confirmed this to newsmen on Tuesday in Lagos.

Hundeyin said the incident occurred on Monday at 7.00a.m., at Bolar site, at Abule-Egba area.

He said the Oko-Oba Division received a report of the incident on Monday at 9.00a.m.

"The suspect stabbed the victim in the left side of his stomach with a knife, causing profuse bleeding from the injury, which ultimately led to his death.

"The Divisional Police Officer immediately led a team of policemen to the scene of crime, where photographs of the deceased were taken," the spokesperson said.

He said that the knife used in committing the crime was recovered.

Hundeyin added that the corpse was evacuated by the Lagos State Environmental Health Monitoring Unit and deposited at the Mainland General Hospital Mortuary, Yaba, for autopsy.

The spokesperson said that the suspect and exhibit were transferred to the State Criminal Investigation Department, Yaba.

According to him, investigation into the case is ongoing.
