

Police speak on father, son found dead inside room in Ebonyi

THE Ebonyi State Police Command has evacuated ~~the corpses of a man and his son in the Ebebe Junction area of Abakaliki metropolis.~~

SP Joshua Ukandu, spokesman of the police command in the state, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) that the evacuation was carried out on Friday.

Ukandu, however, ~~said that the command was yet to get the full details of what led to the deaths of Mr Light Nwodor and his son, Miracle.~~

"When I was called by an individual about the incident, I quickly called the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in the area. They swung into action and the bodies have been evacuated," he said.

"The police have launched an investigation into the matter. The command will definitely inform the general public on completion of investigation. Right now, nobody knows what caused their deaths."

Ukandu also said he had not been briefed by the DPO on any arrest made.

NAN recalled that viral reports had claimed that the victims died following consumption of food prepared by an unknown female said to be on the run.
