

Port Harcourt the Rivers State capital yesterday, witnessed the gathering of who is who in the entertainment industry and the civil society, top government officials from the state were also among dignitaries that besieged the Obi Wali Integrated Cultural Centre and the Port Harcourt cemetery to pay their last respects to the Late Nollywood top actor, Mr J.T. Tom West who died on Thursday, September 28, 2006 as a result of a ghastly motor accident in Lagos.

The entertainment all rounder was said to had just finished directing a new movie and was on his way back from the location when the accident occurred, he died three days later at the Ikeja General Hospital, Lagos.