LAGOS-A 33-year-old man was at the early hours of yesterday, stabbed to death while attempting to separate two persons from fighting in Morogbo area of Lagos.

The deceased, Abdul Isah was sent to an untimely grave during a scuffle between one Mukaila Mumuni and one Nema Omo at Araromi village, at about 2a.m.

Residents of the area said to have been disturbed by the fight which cause could not be immediately ascertained, reportedly ignored the wrestlers, apparently thinking it was a ploy by robbers to attack any person that intervened.
