52 Died in Anambra, Bauchi and Katsina states road accidents: 52 individuals lost their lives in roads accidents across Anambra, Bauchi and Katsina states yesterday. In what might be termed black Thursday, Bauchi recorded thirty two deaths, Anambra eighteen whereas 2 persons died in Katsina. The Bauchi road accident occurred along Bauchi/Kano road, some kilometers from Azare city.

The Sector Commander, Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC) for Bauchi, Mr. Zakariyya Mamman, confirmed the crash to reporters yesterday. Mamman said the accident concerned 2 Yobe Line buses, that collided and went up in flames, killing all the occupants. He said twenty three male and 9 feminine passengers were concerned, adding that his officers were creating effort to evacuate their bodies to Azare General Hospital.

The FRSC sector commander said one amongst the buses was coming back from Damaturu and heading for Kaduna whereas the opposite one was coming back from Kano to Potiskum.

He said the accident was caused by over-speeding and failure of the drivers to watch traffic laws.

Also, at the foot of the Niger Bridge in Onitsha, Anambra State, a truck carrying 2 40-ft containers lost management and crushed eighteen individuals within the early hours of yesterday.

Our reporter, who visited the scene at seven.10a.m, observed that the multiple accidents occurred when some street urchins, allegedly collecting emblem fees for the state government, accosted the truck marked XM 858 MUS, that led to the motive force losing management. the logo officers, it absolutely was learnt, tried to use wood with nails to deflate the truck's tyres when the motive force, who needed to dodge them, lost management of the vehicle and rammed into different vehicles.

Seven vehicles were affected within the accident among that four were business buses and 3 non-public vehicles, heading for Asaba. a number of them were crushed beyond recognition. Meanwhile, 2 feminine councillors in Mayhama and Kalgo native Government Areas of Kebbi State were confirmed dead yesterday in motor accident along Funtuwa Road, Katsina State. Another feminine passenger within the automobile was said to possess developed multiple injuries and rushed to a hospital.
