Gunmen Attack Viewing Centre In Benin, Kill Two Persons

By MIKE OSAROGIAGBON

Last updated:
02/23/2012

BENIN CITY –Gunmen suspected to be cultists have attacked a viewing centre, killed two cousins and whisked away three persons in Benin City.

The ugly incident occurred around Alake Street, Off Evbadoloyi-Ohovbe Quarters, Benin City at about 7pm last Monday.

The victims identified as Kelvin Ogbewi and Michael said to be paternal cousins, were shot dead by the gunmen who went after them immediately they stormed the venue.

Among those allegedly taken away is a graduate of Ambrose Alli University, Ekpoma simply identified as Tall man, owner of the place.

He was said to have been fatally wounded before he was whisked away.

The mother of one of the casualties, Mama Kelvin told The NIGERIAN OBSERVER that some suspected cultists killed her son and his cousin.

She disclosed that policemen from Oregbeni Police Station arrested one of the suspects on Tuesday afternoon in the area of the attack.

Contacted, the spokesman, Edo Police Command, ASP Etim Oyoh Bassey who took over from DSP Peter Ogboi yesterday stated that the command was yet to be informed.
