

that...
and pictures...
WAR TURF please, it's
other readers can use!
It's that easy...!

Erosion in Agbor

A fast approaching erosion is set to cut the Expressway now collecting into two as the rain continues to fall.

Two big churches along the path of the erosion are seriously threatened.

Tom Okojie,
91, Agbor Road, Benin City

Sharp practices at filling stations

UNDERDISPENSING of fuel is now very rampant at the various petrol stations in the country. The attendants brazenly cheat the motorists who approach them to buy fuel.

The Department of Petroleum Resources might have neglected its responsibilities of monitoring the activities of the filling stations.

Akin Soyoye,
2, Joel Ogunnaike Street, Ikeja

Decomposed corpse in Maza Maza

A decomposed body is lying at Maza Maza by Festac First Gate along the Lagos-Badagry Expressway.

As at Thursday morning the corpse was there while passers by covered their noses as they moved on.

Emmanuel Obot,
21, Augustine Onwualu Street, Orile Iganmu

Police CID wears new look

THE Lagos State Police Command's Criminal Investigation Department in Panty is now wearing a new look. Old offices have been renovated while additional ones have been constructed.

Members of the public visiting the place are now provided with good chairs.

Yinka Durojaiye,
57, Ekor Road, Abule-

Teachers suffer salary delay in Lagos

GOVERNMENT school teachers in Lagos

