

Robbers kill DPO, injure others

 A chief superintendent of police, Mr Joseph Ajogé, was killed in Ipetu-ljesa at 3am on Monday during a gun battle with armed robbers.

Investigations by our correspondent showed that the late police chief led a detachment of policemen on a reinforcement mission to Ipetu-ljesa, where armed robbers were operating.

It was gathered that Ajogé, who was the Divisional Police Officer, Ipetu-ljesa police station, headed for the scene of the robbery when he was radioed by a patrol team to send a reinforcement team.

No fewer than five policemen, who went on the reinforcement mission with Ajogé, sustained serious gunshot wounds.
